A web-based version of the AccuFund Time Entry module has been released. Time Entry incorporates with the Employee Portal and Employee Self service modules giving employees easy access to time entry, self service human resource items and latest employee news. Time can now be entered anywhere with internet access while still providing supervisors with review].

and approval functionality. Read full press release [