

Accufund has received a 5 star rating from the CPA Technology Advisor in the October 2005 issue. This annual review of accounting packages for nonprofits gives readers an unbiased review of all the major products in the market. The review describes the many features of AccuFund that make it an excellent choice for nonprofits and government agencies looking for a feature-rich, scalable accounting product at an affordable price.

]

Read full release [